REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant has claimed uniquely distinct features in the instant invention which are not found in the prior art, either singularly or in combination. According to the invention, a communications device is disclosed. The communications device includes a logging module. The logging module is configured to communicate information regarding a change to a configuration of a subsystem of the communications device.

Further, the invention also comprises a method for securing a communications device using a logging module is disclosed. The method includes detecting a change in a configuration of a subsystem of a communications device, and communicating information regarding the change.

These features are not found or suggested in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2132
